📅 Published: 25 August 2018

Antti Tolvi is a composer, sound artist, performer and Qi Gong teacher. He moved in his teens from countryside to city, and got excited about playing didgeridoo. Soon saxophone and free jazz entered the picture and caught Antti's attention. His interest in Classical Indian Music took him all the way to Varansi to study music. After India, Antti studied Taiji and nature back in Finland. Chaos and wild freedom turned into minimalism and Zen. Now Antti has found him self again in the countryside, whit winds, birds, silence and harmony of everything.

Freedom, peace, gratitude and minimalist aesthetic reflects from Antti Tolvis works. www.anttitolvi.com
