

Klaas von Karlos @ EMS July 28 - August 1, 2018

📅 Published: 12 December 2017

Klaas von Karlos is the musical alter ego of U.S. born filmmaker, audiovisual artist and writer Jon-Carlos Evans. He holds a BA in Film Production from Webster University-Saint Louis and an MFA in Media Arts Production from CUNY-City College of New York.

Since 2006, his visual and sonic works including narrative and experimental short films, electronic music albums, and audiovisual performances have participated in festivals and/or received awards from media and art institutions worldwide. Under the alias Klaas von Karlos, he is the frontman of the A/V collective ReVerse Bullets, curator of the experimental performance series GLITCH, and live member of electronic band BIINDS.

His most recent projects include the 2016 album "The Mansa Musa Affair", the Naked Sweatshop EP" with vocalist Kyoka Jinjabrew, and the forthcoming film, "All Tomorrow's Children."
