NV is a solo project of Kate Shilonosova, Moscowbased producer, songstress, composer, designer, coauthor and front girl of Moscow new wavepost punk band “ГШ”. RBMA 2014 and Onebeat 2015 alumni, Moscow scratch orchestra member.

Her solo project, NV, mines the far corners of Japanese new wave, bubble gum, and blissedout electronica to form master-crafted experimental pop gems.

Kate NV draws inspiration from a wide range of influences, from japanese pop from 80's to concrete music and contemporary classic. Through her freeform compositional skills, the listener can see the multilayered and eclectic soundscapes. Kate NV paints a sonic sound arrangement with every track she lays down.

Her album Binasu (Orange Milk Records/ MIND records/2016, PLANCHA) is a revelatory reflection of her perception of the world and her inner state of mind.

Her last album was released in June 2018 on NYC based record label RVNG intl.
