

Vijay Thillaimuthu @ EMS 26-31 July, 2022

 Published: 05 October 2021

Vijay Thillaimuthu is a Tamil-Australian audio-visual artist that has found international acclaim under the moniker Xenosine.

His work is informed by the rich history of analogue sound synthesis and sound reactive electronic art.

Vijay creates unique immersive environments that can be experienced across different sensual distinctions based on synergistic approaches with technology. This is largely enabled through the open ended architecture of modular synthesizers.

Vijay has performed alongside Suzanne Ciani, Kieth Fullerton Whitman, Richard Devine, Robin Fox, Atom™ and Dasha Rush.

Amongst a range of diverse outcomes, Vijay Thillaimuthu has presented work for Unsound, Liquid Architecture, What is Music Festival, the Melbourne International Film Festival, Red Bull Music Festival, The Substation, The Banff Centre and the Tokyo Festival of Modular.

XENOSINE | Sound & Light Synthesis by Vijay Thillaimuthu (<https://www.xenosine.com/>)

Photo by Chloë Smith