

Alyssa Moxley @ EMS 19-27 September, 2022

📅 Published: 11 October 2021

Alyssa Moxley (<http://www.alyssa-moxley.com>) (USA/IRL) is a composer and artist working with narratives of identity, place, and embodied experience through sound.

She uses field recording, interviews, composition, digital and analog sound design, speaker placement, and sculpture to create detailed sonic interventions and environments via compositions, live improvised performances and installations.

Her solo and collaborative works have been heard and installed in venues and radio stations internationally.
