 Published: 03 December 2023

Jessica Sligter (<https://www.jessicasligter.org>) is a composer, musician and textwriter, whose work exists in the borderlands between genres, in a conceptual and experimental space.

With a background blending influences such as improvised music, shapenote singing, conceptual visual arts, and abstract electronic music, Sligter's work is characterized by an examining and re-arranging of metaphysical musical building-blocks.

Her releases include 'Polycrisis:yes!' (2018, Butler & Butler), A Sense Of Growth (2016, Hubro), and 'Untitled #2/The Mute' med Wilbert Bulsink (2018, Unsound).

She's written commissioned works for among others Ensemble neoN, Tøyen Fil og Klafferi, and Oslo14.
