

Christian Rønn @ EMS 20-29 March, 2017

📅 Published: 18 February 2017

Danish musician and composer Christian Rønn works in many different areas of sound, but in the last decade the focus have been on experimental electro-acoustic music combined with free improv and a compositional praxis has primarily taken of from those two areas.

Coming from a masters-degree in organ from The royal Danish Academy of Music (RDAM) in Copenhagen, with a speciality in improvising, the free playing has always been at the heart of the output. At the moment working on music for Pipe-organ and electronics and also a commissioned piece called "22500 heste", that incorporates the live-sound and "performance" from what was in 30 years the worlds biggest dieselengine.

During the years a few aliases, such as "Ganga", has seen the day of light and tours include Middle East, Japan, Spain, Ibiza and the US. Released albums on the labels Escho, Insula Music, Flinc Music, Nische, Skrat, Kid Recordings, Wormland, Universal, Sony and many more.
