

Christine Sun Kim @ EMS 26-29 July, 2015

---

 Published: 29 April 2015

Christine Sun Kim (<http://christinesunkim.com/>) uses the medium of sound through technology, performance, and drawing to investigate and rationalize her relationship with sound and spoken languages.

Photo: Matt Doscher

Selected group exhibitions and performances have been held at or as part of: Sound Live Tokyo, Tokyo; White Space, Beijing; LEAP, Berlin; Carroll / Fletcher, London; nyMusikk, Oslo; Andquestionmark, Stockholm; Southern Exposure, San Francisco; Recess Activities, New York; the Calder Foundation, New York; and the Museum of Modern Art, New York. She has collaborated on sound projects with artists such as Devonté Hynes, Thomas Benno Mader, Wolfgang Müller, and Alison O'Daniel. Kim has participated in artist residencies at the Whitney Museum of American Art, Haverford College, and Southern Exposure, and was awarded TED and MIT Media Lab Fellowships. She works and lives in New York and Berlin.