📅 Published: 19 February 2015

Christof Kurzmann (<http://ckurzmann.blogspot.se/>), born in Vienna/Austria, presently lives in Vienna and Buenos Aires. Musician between electropop, improvisation and "new music". A sometimes soloist, he prefers to be part of a collective or a working group. Played concerts in all continents except Australia. Organizer of various events in the music- and media-genre. Labelowner of the small independent label "charhizma" - which at the moment only exists as a platform to present musicians from around the world in various live settings.

Conscient objector of military- and civil- service, he still is politicly active and/or interested. He likes to travel, go to the cinemas and concerts, likes to read, even emails (but he doesn't reply all the time)
