Eva Bowan is a Polish born Brighton (UK) based multidisciplinary artist working in the fields of Music, Graphic Design, Photography, Video and Illustration.

Her interest lies in combining analogue and digital techniques, both in visual and sonic art, leading to exciting fusions of organic textures with electronic elements and glitch. She creates captivating surreal worlds which are a mixture of dreams, hidden fantasies, observing the nature and overanalysing the world around and within.

Her sound can be described as a unique combination of electronica, ambient and industrial pop.

In the past year she supported acts like: James Holden, Swans, Tim Hecker, Gazelle Twin, Rosie Lowe, Silver Apples, Umberto, Pregnant and more.
