

Moa Holgersson @ EMS 15-26 January, 2020

📅 Published: 01 July 2019

Moa Holgersson is a performance and sound artist currently based in Amsterdam.

She has a self composed background in aerial disciplines and contemporary dance practices and studied Visual Art at Gerrit Rietveld Academy.

She researches spacial and bodily resonance in ways where sound and movement often takes equal parts. Her work deals with alternative ways of communication between species through voice and physical proximity.

Navigating life from a female perspective, she's interested in how the female voice exists and have existed.
