Mykola Haleta (<http://mykolahaleta.com/>) is a New York-based audio and visual patterning engineer, and independent researcher. His work focuses on the construction of new forms of multistable perceptual phenomena, systems feedback, internal mathematics and group composition. Haleta's audio and visual compositions are constructed from the research, organization and patterning of optical and aural data. Past and current projects include: 1/3 of The Voltage Spooks alongside Rick Reed and Keith Rowe, 1/2 of Zbigniew Karkowski/Mykola Haleta, and 1/4 of WZT Hearts.
