

Nima Ikki @ EMS 4-8 December, 2017

📅 Published: 18 July 2017

Nima Ikki is the most recent moniker of Paulina Lasa (México, 1980), a multi disciplinary artist that started working with electronic music as a DJ in 2003.

Since then, she has moved forward to experiment with sound and music as a composer, lyric writer, singer, producer and performer.

She has collaborated with numerous musicians live and at the studio, has published 3 LP of previous projects and 4 EP as Nima Ikki. She has performed at festivals, museums and clubs in Mexico and the US. Her interests and influences go from sound art to traditional folk music, and converge in productions that could be catalogued as experimental/noisy ambient and techno.
