

Paul Baran @ EMS 5-18 December

📅 Published: 25 May 2016

Paul Baran is a composer and improviser based in Glasgow in the UK, who has released three critically acclaimed albums on the Swedish label Fangbomb. He is also one half of electronic music duo The Cray Twins. He has worked extensively with major names in the world of electro-acoustic improvisation from Keith Rowe to Werner Dafeldedecker. Paul's work is currently concerned with the process of reterritorialization in sound work. Adapting audio cultures from around the world as well as disembodied voices from the past.
