

Rory Viner @ EMS 12-16 December, 2016

 Published: 01 June 2016

Rory Viner is a sound artist and experimental composer based in Tokyo, Japan. His current work focuses on synesthesia (the mixing of senses), sensors, data and sound.

His major works include making a scores out suicide data, lie detecting machines and sex movements. His works have been featured in Wired Magazine, The New York Observer (<http://observer.com/2016/04/japans-famed-experimental-musician-just-released-another-unbelievable-song/>), Vice's Motherboard (<http://motherboard.vice.com/read/this-is-what-sex-music-actually-sounds-like>) & The Japan Times (<http://www.japantimes.co.jp/culture/2014/08/19/music/musician-rory-viner-turns-japans-suicide-statistics-song/#.V06fsjY5Bfi>) as well as various other international news outlets.

Find more information or contact him on his website. (<http://rory-viner.tumblr.com>)

(<http://rory-viner.tumblr.com>) Photo by Yo Ishigaki