

Seth Cluett @ EMS 11-17 July, 2016

📅 Published: 28 January 2016

Seth Cluett (<http://www.onelonepixel.org>) is an artist whose work includes installation, concert music, photography, and critical writing. His research investigates auditory memory, architectural acoustics, and the history and documentation of sound in the arts.

Photo by Jon Abbey

His work has been presented at venues such as the Palais de Tokyo, the Whitney Museum, MoMA PS1, Apexart, and Eyebeam. The recipient of awards from Meet the Composer and the Foundation for Contemporary Arts Emergency Grant, Cluett holds a PhD in composition from Princeton University and an MFA in electronic art from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. He has published writings with Tacet Revue, Leonardo Music Journal, and the Journal of the Acoustical Society of America, and his creative work is documented on the Line Imprint and Errant Bodies Press as well as Sedimental and Winds Measure Recordings. He is jointly appointed in the programs in Visual Arts & Technology and Music & Technology at Stevens Institute of Technology in Hoboken, New Jersey.