The Lappetites (<http://lappetites.com/>) is a forum for women to build and share sonic experiences through the manipulation of digital tools, music, image, language and the creation of new architectural spaces with audiences. Established in 2001 and performing worldwide, Lappetites players are of different generations and nationalities, finding a commonality through sonic communications which they present in their mouth watering performances. Current active members of The Lappetites are: Kaffe Matthews (<http://www.kaffematthews.net/>) (UK) , Antye Greie aka AGF (<http://www.poemproducer.com/>)(Germany/Finland) and Ryoko Akama (<http://www.ryokoakama.com/>)(Japan).
