Cairo-based ZULI debuted on Lee Gamble's UIQ label with the Bionic Ahmed EP to resounding acclaim from JUNO (<http://www.junodownload.com/plus/2016/02/18/zuli-bionic-ahmed-ep/>), Fact (<http://www.factmag.com/2016/01/27/zuli-bionic-ahmed-ep-uiq-video/>), and The Vinyl Factory (<http://thevinylfactory.com/vinyl-factory-releases/the-10-best-vinyl-releases-this-week-1st-february/>) in early 2016.

In Cairo he's a key player in the KiK (Kairo is Koming) group and one of the heads behind the city's pivotal collective, VENT, as documented by Resident Advisor (<https://www.residentadvisor.net/features/2433>), where he's founded a beacon for Egyptian electronic music.

With DJ support by Demdike Stare and Kode9 on Radio 1, ZULI's debut 12" covers a unique electronic perspective taking cues from classic UK ruffage and
